

2023-24 FACULTY ADMINISTRATOR ORIENTATION to CAROLINA (FAOC)

The Center for Faculty Excellence (CFE) Faculty Administrator Orientation to Carolina (FAOC) program goals are to provide an orientation to campus resources, build a support network among faculty administrators, and support development in their leadership roles.

This program is for mid- to senior career faculty and/or faculty in administrative leadership roles.

It's a strong component of onboarding for leaders, featuring units and programs such as:

Office of the Provost; Office of Operational Excellence; Human Resources and Wellness Resources; Finance and Administration; University Counsel; Ombuds Office; Equal Opportunity and Compliance; Office of Diversity and Inclusion; Office of Vice Chancellor of Research; Office of Innovate Carolina; Office of University Development; UNCCH General Alumni Association; University Libraries; Information Technology Services (ITS); UNC Communications; Global Affairs; Governance; Employee Forum; and Faculty Development and Support.

Confirmed dates for 2023-24 are listed below.

September 15
October 13
November 10
December 1
January 19
February 23
March 22
April 19
May 3

Meeting times are 11:30 AM – 1:30 PM and include lunch.